Why Some Women Leave Home

Because it isn't a HOME.

Because—well, because it isn't like those modern attractive, artistic, convenient, moderate priced HOMES shown in our magnificent new $15,000 Plan Book.

They're all house—no waste space—one half the steps saved in housework—the kind of a home you want your friends to visit—inspired by people who wanted to enjoy their homes.

Over a hundred of the most beautiful designs of the year. You should see them, even if you are not going to build now—just to know how little it costs to build the Ideal Home.

Full information is yours on request, without obligation—we are glad to show and explain these delightful designs—we're proud of them.

If you can't come tell us, we'll take them to you at your convenience.

TOO MODEST?

Michigan people are apt to think that when a manufacturer says, "My product is best," he means it, but maybe his enthusiasm makes the statement a trifle exaggerated. There fore, it is interesting to find one manufacturer is accused of being too modest in regard to his 68-year-old liniment. Messrs. Nicholson & Stuh of Cheyenne, Wyo., says: "We know from personal experience that Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh will do all and more than the Hanford Company claim for it."

The Latest Friendship Link Bracelets

ALL THE RAGE. ENORMOUS SELLER

A girl starts a bracelet by exchanging a friendship link with another girl friend. Each girl's initials are engraved on links. She wears the link engraved and additional links around her wrist as she receives them by slipping a narrow piece of black ribbon (see cut below) through opened end spaces of links, tying ribbon, forming temporary bracelet. When girl has enough links she takes them to the jeweler to do the attaching, forming a permanent piece of jewelry. The more friends a girl has the greater number bracelets she will wear.
